ECHOES OF SACRIFICE 1914-1918

In 2026 the class of '76 came together,
A plaque in St George's, remembrance forever,
And wreaths layed at the Menin Gate
To mark the Old Lyonians' fate

150, 110 and 50 the anniversary numbers
Resonate from the universe like symphonic wonders
From ripples in the subconscious a project came to life
Of how best to remember their sacrificial strife

Middle Road, Harrow on the Hill a single location,
Provided a willing source of soldierly vocation.
They happily enlisted and all went with smiles
To fight for outcomes measured in slaughter and miles

Western Front, Dardanelles, Africa and Middle East
All campaigns where their lives abruptly ceased
Impacts back home impossible to fathom
Undoubtedly left an emotional chasm

Thiepval, Helles and memorials worldwide
Their names carved in stone all endure with pride
Aeons emanate from the Greek God Chronos
Ever whispering STET FORTUNA DOMUS
